

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

BIBLE. JOHN ELIOT'S INDIAN TRANSLATION.

- 27 ELIOT (JOHN) THE HOLY BIBLE CONTAINING THE OLD TESTAMENT AND THE NEW. Translated into the INDIAN LANGUAGE and ordered to be printed by the Commissioners of the United Colonies in NEW ENGLAND, at the charge and with the consent of the Corporation in England for the propagation of the Gospel amongst the Indians in New England, brown crushed levant morocco extra, g. e. enclosed in a blue levant morocco case, lined with white velvet, by Francis Bedford
4to. Cambridge (Mass.) Printed by Samuel Green and Marmaduke Johnson, 1663

* * This is the famous Bible translated into the Algonquian Indian tongue by JOHN ELIOT "the Apostle to the Indians." It is one of the twenty copies sent to England for presents, and Mr. Wilberforce Eames thus describes it in his Bibliographical Notes on Eliot's Indian Bible (Washington, 1890).

"An unusually large and fine copy with many rough leaves. It remained in the original binding of dark blue morocco, gilt edges, and in the finest condition until after 1870 when it was rebound in olive [brown] levant gro-grained morocco by F. Bedford. Size of the leaf $7\frac{1}{8}$ by $5\frac{1}{4}$ inches. With the diamond-shaped figure on the Indian New Testament title. As originally bound this copy did not contain the leaf of contents and therefore was like No. 17 of this list, described as a fifth variety. The leaf, however, was afterwards inserted from another copy, so that it conforms now with the description of the third variety. On the verso of the title is the stamp of the Bodleian Library of Oxford, by which institution it was sold as a duplicate. It came to the United States about the year 1863 and was offered for sale at £100. Mr. James T. Bruce of New York purchased it, and at the sale of his library, New York, April, 1868, it brought \$1130 . . . passing into the collection of Mr. John A. Rice of Chicago, who supplied the leaf of contents from an imperfect copy of the Bible in his possession. At the sale of his books, New York, March, 1870, it was bought for \$1050 by Mr. J. W. Bouton, the bookseller, who sold it to Mr. William Menzies of New York. It was then learned that the leaf of contents which had been inserted by Mr. Rice was from the edition of 1685. . . . This mistake Mr. Menzies rectified by inserting [and inlaying] a genuine leaf from an imperfect copy of the first edition in his possession. He also had the book rebound, preserving its original size," &c., &c.

Since the above was written, this copy has been in the hands of several other great American Collectors, always changing hands at an increasing price.

Originally but twenty of these Bibles were made in this shape with the dedication for presentation in England. Mr. Eames describes no less than eleven as being in public collections. Eight, including the present copy, are in the hands of individuals, several of them never being likely to come into the market.

Bedford*

4to. [Philadelphia, William Bradford.] Printed in the year 1685

- * * Besides being a very interesting and important early book on Pennsylvania and New Jersey, this little volume has the distinction of being the first book printed in America by William Bradford. That this is the case there can no longer be any doubt, after the study which has been given to the question by the late Mr. Frederick B. Stone and the late Mr. Charles R. Hildeburn. The evidence is set forth in an extended note in Mr. Hildeburn's "Issues of the Press in Pennsylvania," where this book is given the second place. In calling it the "first book," we must except, of course, the little Almanack of 1685, which was printed by Bradford earlier in the same year.

Budd himself, had settled in Burlington, N. J., in 1678, and owned 5,000 acres of land, which cost him £100. His book is not a religious treatise, as are so many books of the period, but it is a good account of the country and its resources, written with a view of inducing settlers to make their homes in the country. At the end is the translation of "The Dying Words of Ockanichon," who died in Burlington; also an account of a Conference with the Indians at Burlington and other places.

- 42 BULLOCK (WILLIAM) VIRGINIA IMPARTIALLY EXAMINED, and left to publick view, to be considered by all Judicious and honest men, green crushed levant morocco, with doublure of citron levant, gilt edges, by F. Bedford 4to. John Hammond, 1649

- * * This is a guide for prospective settlers, and is a well-written prospectus, notwithstanding that it was finished in a week's time, as the author declares: "Had you given me more time, I should have been larger in your satisfaction, but this is what six nights could produce, which time you know is all I had; and of this, the recollecting and reading my ancient studies took up much; but what is done (upon examination) you'll find is clear and true." As it is, the work abounds with details of the colony of the highest value and interest; indeed, in this respect it is not surpassed by any other contemporary work.

-  This precious volume is the most celebrated example of Benjamin Franklin's press. He wrote the Preface and in it says that he has printed the book, "in a large and fair Character, that those who begin to think on the Subject of OLD AGE (which seldom happens till their Sight is somewhat impair'd by it's Approaches) may not, in Reading, by the Pain small Letters give the Eyes, feel the Pleasure of the Mind in the least allayed." In conclusion he says, "I shall add to these few Lines my hearty Wish, that this first Translation of a Classic, in this Western World, may be followed with many others, performed with equal Judgment and Success, and be a happy Omen, that Philadelphia shall become the Seat of the American Muses."
- The translation was made in 1734 by Chief Justice James Logan.

-  This is a book of excessive rarity, especially in the present condition. It was called the Second Voyage because Raleigh's, performed in 1595, was the first, although only printed in the same year as this. Keymis had an early and tragic end; but his book forms an important part of the brilliant history of English seamanship in the days of Elizabeth. A large woodcut of Raleigh's arms occupies the reverse of the title, and faces the dedication to him.

Collected and Translated out of Latine from his Discourse and writings, by Sir William Talbot, Baronet, VERY FINE UNCUT COPY with the map, elegantly bound in red morocco, super-extra, g. t. by the Club Bindery 4to. J. O. for Samuel Heyrick, 1672
- * * * A volume of extraordinary rarity, especially in this condition. It has the rare leaf of License facing the title, and also the "Map of the whole Territory traversed by John Lederer in his three Marches." Sir William Talbot thinks "it is clear from this book, that the long looked for discovery of the Indian Sea does nearly approach, and that Carolina presumes that the accomplishment of this glorious designe is reserved for her." Lederer, who was a German, travelled far into the interior of Virginia and imagined that he had nearly approached the shores of the South Sea. He made himself obnoxious to the people of Virginia, and sought refuge in Maryland, where he was well received by Sir William Talbot, who, finding him "a modest and ingenious person and a pretty scholar," says in the preface, "I thought it common justice to give him an occasion of vindicating himself from what I had heard of him; which truly he did with so convincing reason and circumstance, as quite abolished those former impressions in me, and made me desire this account of his travels, which here you have faithfully rendered out of Latine from his owne writings, with an entire map of the territory traversed."

4to. G. Bishop, 1609
- * * This is a translation of the fourth and sixth books of the first edition of Lescarbot, Paris, 1609, although the author's name is nowhere mentioned in the translation. The translator, Peter Erondelle (or Arundell) was a French schoolmaster in London; who was afterwards a stock-holder in the Virginia Company. In his Epistle he says: "The whole volume of the Navigations of the French-nation into the West Indies (comprised in three books) was BROUGHT to MEE, to be TRANSLATED BY M. RICHARD HACKLUTT, a man who for his worthy, and profitable labours, is well known to most men of worth, not onely of this kingdome, but also of forrain parts: and by him this part was selected; and chosen from the whole worke, for the particular use of this Nation."
Copies occur without the date on the title, the work having been reissued at a later date with a new title-page bearing the imprint of Andrew Hebb. The dated edition is considerably the rarer.

4to. Printed for Andrew Hebb (s. a.)

- * * This copy also contains the two leaves of Latin Dedication which are not usually found in this edition. Bibliographers have been sorely perplexed in assigning a date to this issue. It is exactly the same as that of 1612 with a new title page. Some American authorities place Hebb's edition as early as 1597, making it the first issue, while some suggest 1615, and others as late a date as 1640. The late Mr. Henry Stevens, in his Historical Collections Part II, 1886, gives strong evidence to prove that it could not have been earlier than 1625 or later than 1637.

* * * With note by Mr. Lefferts, "Contains (inserted) the exceedingly rare original two leaves of 'Errata,' THE ONLY COPY WHICH I HAVE BEEN ABLE TO TRACE."

Whenever found these two leaves must of necessity be inserted as they were printed in America upon the arrival of copies of the book from England. Mather prefixed a rather amusing note to these two pages of Errata in which he says:

"The Holy Bible itself, in some of its editions, hath been affronted with Scandalous Errors of the Press-work; and in one of them they so printed those words Psal. 119-161 Printers have persecuted me. The Author of this Church History has all the Reason in the World then to be Patient, tho' his work be depraved with many Errors of the Press-work. The common Excuse in such cases is, The Distance of the Author from the Press; Here there was the Distance of a thousand Leagues."

- * * * This is the Second Edition with the engraved title dated 1637 and the verses before the title reprinted. It has the rare map of Virginia engraved by Ralph Hall in 1636 at p. 905. Respecting this map the following notice is given in the Errata on the last leaf. "In page 905 for the Description of New Spaine read New Virginia, but there is no Map for Virginia in regard there is a more exact Map drawing in that Country whose Platforme is not yet come over, but when it comes, every buyer of the Booke shall have it given him gratis." This copy lacks Smith's Map of New England at p. 930, often said to have been inserted instead of Hall's map, but clearly called for in the table of contents.
- 216 Metcalf (Samuel L.) There are two issues of this 1580 edition, one in which the pagination and register, after fol. 162, are correct and continuous (except fol. 174, which is wrongly numbered 166), and the other in which the pagination and register after 162 are very erratic. This copy is of the latter variety.

 * * * With a long and interesting manuscript account relating to the History and genuineness of these letters.
 On the other hand the late Mr. Henry Stevens in his Bibliotheca Historica of 1870, exhibits considerable evidence to prove these letters forgeries, a conclusion which has since been pretty generally admitted by historians to be correct.

4to. W. H. for Tho. Slater, 1650
- * * Mr. Field remarks: "This is the first dissertation in English, on that fertile subject of controversy and hypothesis, the origin of the American Indians. The Puritans of New England awoke to it with a zeal, untempered by the knowledge that keener intellects and higher scholarship had been stimulated by its attractive mystery a century before. They seem to have been unaware that Las Casas, Torquemada, Garcia, and Herrera, Grotius, Horn, and De Laet had wrought the vein until all the metal was exhausted. But a new cycle of disputation now commenced, and in 1652, Thorowgood's treatise was answered by Hamon L'Estrange, in a tract entitled Americans no Jewes. London, 1652." For this latter piece see this catalogue. No. 186.

By the Rev. James Steward, uncut
8vo. Brooklyn, Grant & Wells, 1809
- * * * The scarce first edition with "by James Steward" on the title-page and "Brooklyn" as the imprint. Later editions have "By a Gentleman of Connecticut" and "Norwich, published for the Author." In this copy page 35 is torn across, and the folding frontispiece is foxed and torn in the plate mark, but nothing lost.
- 302 Tudor (William) Life of James Otis of Massachusetts containing also Notices of some contemporary characters and events from the Year 1760 to 1775, portrait, half maroon morocco, g. t. uncut

- 303 Varnum (J. M.) The Case, Trevett against Weeden; On Information and Complaint, for refusing Paper Bills in payment for butcher's Meat, in Market, at par with specie. 4to. Providence, John Carter, 1787
- * * * This was a case of very great importance at the time it took place. The plaintiff bought meat of the defendant, a butcher, and tendered to him certain paper money issued by act of the General Assembly of Rhode Island, which was refused. The defendant pleaded, "that it appears that the act had expired and hath no force."

- 304 VAUGHAN (SIR WILLIAM) THE GOLDEN FLEECE. Divided into three Parts . . . Translated from Cambrioll Colchos, out of the Southernmost Part of the Iland, commonly called Newfoundland. By Orpheus Junior, small hole in page 115 otherwise FINE COPY, crimson levant morocco, g. e. by F. Bedford 4to. Francis Williams, 1626
-  With the folding map of Newfoundland, frequently lacking. This curious book, partly in verse, partly in prose, was written to encourage emigration to Newfoundland, where the author owned a large tract of land.
- 305 VERARDUS-COLUMBUS. In laudem Serenissimi Ferdinandi Hispaniar [um] regis Bethicæ & regni Granatæ obsidio victoria and triumphus, Et de INSULIS IN MARI INDICO NUPER INVENTIS, 36 unnumbered leaves, the Letter of Columbus filling the last seven and a half, six woodcuts, brown morocco, g. e. 4to. Basle, J. Bergman de Olpe, 1494
-  A volume of extreme rarity. Of the seven early Latin editions known of the Cosco translation of this celebrated Letter of Columbus, only two bear an actual date. This edition is doubly interesting by reason of the woodcuts. The Columbus Letter is here appended to a relation by Verardus of the capture of Granada by Ferdinand from the Moors.
- 306 VIRGINIA RICHLY VALUED by the description of the maine land of Florida her next neighbour: Out of the foure yeeres continuall trauell and discoverie . . of Don Ferdinando de Soto &c. Written by a Portugall gentleman of Eluas and Translated out of Portuguese . . by Richard Haklvyt . . FINE COPY, half green morocco Felix Kyngston for Matthew Lownes, 1609
-  VERY RARE. The name of the original author, as Hakluyt says in the Epistle Dedicatorie of the volume, 'is not set downe'. Of his Portuguese text, printed at Evora in 1557, very few copies are known.
- 307 VIRGINIA. NOVA BRITANNIA: Offring Most Excellent frutes by Planting in Virginia. Exciting all such as be well affected to further the same, woodcut of ship on title, red levant morocco, g. e. by F. Bedford 4to. For Samuel Macham, 1609
-  After Smith's "True Relation" of 1608, this is the first printed book relating to the English settlements in Virginia. There are three if not four editions or variations. Some copies have not the ship on the title-page, and the third word is differently spelt offering or offring. The dedication is signed R. I. (supposed to be Robert Johnson) in some copies while in others these initials do not appear. The greatest textual difference occurs on the recto of D4. This copy has only three paragraphs on that page. Another, probably a later edition has four. This difference was brought about by the omission of the sentence, "As also euery Planter and Adventurer shall be inserted in the Patent by name." The new Charter was not signed by the King until May 23rd, 1609, having been kept open to receive the names of the "Planters and Adventurers." It seems probable, therefore, that the edition or editions without the above sentence were printed after this date.

Date cut into but has the rare preliminary leaf marked "A." From Almon W. Griswold's collection with his arms on the front side of the binding.

- 308 VIRGINIA. THE NEW LIFE OF VIRGINIA: Declaring the former successes and present estate of that plantation, being the second part of Nova Britannia. Published by the authorities of his Majesties Counsell of Virginea, FINE COPY, red crushed levant morocco, g. e. 4to. Felix Kyngston, 1612

 This piece possibly exceeds in rarity the first part, "Nova Britannia," and it is presumably by the same author, as the 'Epistle Dedicatorie' is also signed R. I. Robert Johnson was a member of the Grocers' Company, and interested in various enterprises of the time, having been an incorporator of the East India Company and of the North West Passage Company, and afterwards one of the purchasers of the Bermudas.

- 309 VIRGINIA. OBSERVATIONS TO BE FOLLOWED for the making of fit roomes to keepe Silke-Wormes in, as also for the best manner of planting of Mulberry trees to feed them. Published by authority for the Benefit of the Noble Plantation in Virginia, crimson crushed levant morocco extra, g. e. by Zaehnsdorf 4to. ib. 1620

 Contains at the end: "A valuation of the Commodities growing and to be had in Virginia, rated as they are there worth."

- 310 VIRGINIA. A DECLARATION OF THE STATE OF THE COLONY and AFFAIRES IN VIRGINIA: With the Names of the Adventurours, and Summes adventured in that Action. By his Majesties Counsell for Virginia 22 Junii, 1620, pagination of some leaves cut into, few leaves mended in the back margin, red crushed levant morocco extra, g. e. by F. Bedford 4to. Printed by T. S., 1620

 Several issues of this book appeared in the same year. The early ones consisted of a number of pieces separately paged and presumably issued at intervals, as the information came to hand. The present copy is of the latest issue, when all the separate pieces were reprinted under one continuous pagination (97 pp.) and register.

- 311 Wafer (Lionel) A New Voyage and Description of the Isthmus of America. Giving an account of the Author's abode there, map and 3 plates, calf 8vo. James Knapton, 1699

- 313 Ward (Nathaniel) The Simple Cobler of Aggawamm in America, &c. The THIRD EDITION with some additions, green morocco extra, by Riviere

- 314 Ward (Nathaniel) The Simple Cobler of Aggawamm in America. The FOURTH EDITION with some amendments, red morocco, g. e. by Pratt two or three leaves very slightly cut into on the head rules

 In this edition the work extends to 89 pp.
- 315 Ward (Ned.) A Trip to New England with a Character of the Country and People both English and Indians, half calf, gilt fol. Printed in the year 1699
 Of all the early books upon New England this is perhaps the most amusing. Whether the author slanders the Puritans or not is difficult to tell at this late day, but according to him their godliness was like beauty—only skin deep.
- 316 Welde (Thomas) A Short Story of the Rise, Reign and Ruin of the Antinomians, Familists and Libertines, that infected the churches of New England and how they were confuted by the Assembly of Ministers there, as also of the Magistrates proceedings in Court against them, fine uncut copy, but having a few leaves mended, and restored in facsimile where necessary, crimson crushed levant morocco, g. t. by W. Pratt
4to. Ralph Smith, 1644
 This book having been printed on paper too small for the page of type, is nearly always found badly cut into. Even in this uncut copy the paper in some leaves is not large enough to take all the type—vide p. 5, &c.
- 317 Welde (Thomas) Antinomians and Familists Condemned by the Synod of Elders in New England, with the Proceedings of the Magistrates against them and their apology for the same. Together with a memorable example of God's Judgements upon some of those Persons so proceeded against, FINE UNCUT COPY, blue crushed levant morocco, g. e. by F. Bedford

4to. Tho. Paine for H. Overton, 1644

As also an Inuitation . and likewise certaine Letters sent from that Countrey; which are printed in the latter part of this Book, olive crushed levant morocco, dull gold edges by the Club Bindery 4to. Felix Kingston, 1622
- * * * This second edition comprises the 'Discourse' with alterations, together with the 'Loving Invitation' appended, instead of being issued separately. It also contains at the end 15 pages of Letters from Newfoundland, dated 1622, including an account of Avolon, the colony founded by Sir George Calvert, and abandoned in favour of Maryland. At the end is a BROADSIDE, one page folio, dated Sept. 16, 1622, signed by the Bishop of London, furthering a request from the Archbishop of Canterbury for all clergymen to take up collections for the reimbursement of Whitbourne, and the advancement of the Newfoundland plantation.

- * * The "Burr's Conspiracy Exposed," although called volume two of the Memoirs, is really an independent work on the Burr question printed five years before the correct volume II. It is so rare that in the Menzies' catalogue it is stated only three copies were known at that time.

It is dedicated to the Parliament of England, and at the end is Roger Williams to Major Endicot, Governor of the Massachusetts, upon "occasion of the late persecution against Mr. Clarke, Obadiah Holmes and others at Boston."

This is one of a long series of controversial books between Williams and Cotton. In 1644 Williams published The Bloudy Tenent of Persecution. In 1647 Cotton replied with The Bloudy Tenent Washed, to which Williams makes answer in the present volume.
